Do not stand at my grave and weep, I am not there, I do not sleep.

I am a thousand winds that blow, I am the diamond glint on snow, I am the sunlight on ripened grain, I am the gentle autumn rain.

When you wake in the morning hush, I am the swift, uplifting rush of quiet birds in circling flight, I am the soft starlight at night.

I am the child who has come to rest in the arms of the Father who knows him best.

Do not stand at my grave and weep, I am not there, I do not sleep.

Do not stand at my grave and cry, I am not there, I did not die!

REFLECTION

My Dearest Terrell,

Your life was a precious gift with seven wonderful years. Your sweet spirit, laughter and beautiful smile was a constant joy in my life; you will live in my heart eternally.

Earth, your stepping stone, Heaven your throne.

Granna

“Short Stay”

Terrell, it seems like a short while of knowing you and I have been blessed. I wish it was much longer but God called you HOME to rest. While you're away, I have to stay but that's OK I will see you again, on my DAY.

Grandpa

Terrell,

Today I say hello again. I will never say goodbye, because absent in the body is present with the Lord. Keep my heart until I see you again face to face.

Love Forever,
Grandma

Godson,

You will be loved and remembered forever. Let your spirit continue to shine upon us. I love you. We all love you.

Goddad Sani

REFLECTION

I never knew joy until I met you.
Didn't know pain until you were gone.
Your smile lit up my life
And your love warmed my soul.
The times we shared are priceless
I thank God for ever second He gave us
And try to understand the moments He took away
Even though my world is a little bit sadder
I know Heaven is a bit brighter
They have received a new angel
My Angel.

Love Mommy

When God delivered you to us, son
We didn't know how much time we had.
We know now that God's timeline
Was just a little bit shorter than what we expected.
How blessed we are to know you,
To feel your love,
To feel the warmth of God's grace
Through your smile, your heart, your being
As you free yourself from the weight of this world,
You now have a body large enough to hold
Everything that you are.
Watch over us son, and I will do my best
To be worthy of your name.
What a blessing we were given
When God chose us for you.

Love Daddy

REMEMBERING TERRELL

Terrell Christopher Gladney was granted his angel wings on March 10, 2008. His final days were spent surrounded by family whom Terrell touched in a grand way throughout his short, yet memorable life. His bright smile melted our hearts and though he was a quiet soul, his presence was insurmountable.

Terrell enjoyed studying and actively cooking, reading, music, and playing video games. Most of us remember his coin phrase for everything, 'I dunno.' in his deep raspy voice.

With Terrell's passing, we remind others that his life is to be celebrated, although we will miss him daily. Through his teaching about life, we were able to create priceless memories that will last forever.

Terrell was cared for by an enormous VILLAGE: his parents, Terrence and LaMinta Gladney; brother, Terrence Gladney, Jr.; sister, Lailah Gladney; Grandparents, Marla Gladney-Smallwood, William Johnson, Carmen Johnson, and Otis & Janet Gladney; Great-Grandparents, Lolly Gladney and Norma Jean Conner; Godfather, Hasani Barnes; aunts and uncles, Brandon Gladney, John and Tia Thompson, Glen Terrell, Beth Terrell, Eriana Canada-Johnson, Joseph Gladney, Eric Stephens, Alicia Gladney, and Breanne Gladney; and a host of other family and close friends.

Terrell is the essence of God's Way: kind-spirited and loving, putting others first before himself, with his actions making much greater statements than any words ever could. He will live on in each of us forever.
